SECOND MAN IN THE NATION

Was Our Guest Today, Speaking Briefly in City
Opera House

Paid High Tribute to Watson and the Work He is Doing in Congress

The Fairbanks Special arrived in this city, about thirty minutes behind schedule time. All morning many people were walking nervously up and down the streets, in and out of stores and public buildings, anxiously waiting for the arrival of the Vice President of the greatest Republic in the world.

Dr. F. M. Sparks had charge of the reception of Vice President Fairbanks and was assisted by the following committee, A. L. Riggs, F. A. Mull, Capt. J. K. Gowdy, John Moses and Dr. F. G. Hackleman, who went to Greensburg this morning and returned with the Vice President on his special train.

The automobiles of Dr. J. C. Sexton, Dr. Frank Green, County Auditor Winship, District Chairman Owen L. Carr and Jasper Case were at the station and carried the Fairbanks party and corps of newspaper men to the city opera house. The Vice President rode in the Case machine together with Hon. John K. Gowdy, of this city, and Hon. John L. Griffiths, Consul to Liverpool, with Chaffee Fred Cook at the wheel.

Fred A. Capp presided at the meeting and Fairbanks spoke briefly and said in part:

"My friends, my time is limited, I am sorry to say, and I can only be with you for a short while, barely long enough to bid you greeting and farewell. The train is behind time today, but I trust that the good people of Indiana will not be behind time on November 6th. (Applause.)"

"I am gratified to be here at the home of a gentleman whom I have been associated with for several years. A man who has been a faithful servant to you, and who, when questions of great moment confronted us, the voice of this great representative could be heard with power. He stands as one of the men at the head of this nation, a man of profound wisdom in public affairs. For he is a student in the policies of the party he represents, and that man is your own James E. Watson. (Prolonged applause.) It means much to have a man of his rare ability and capacity with the great counselors of this great nation. There is no one who works as tireless as he, and no one who is heard with more respect and profit."

"And it is a pleasure to be here in the presence of one who saw many years of faithful service on the battlefield; a man who again served his country in the public service of the State and at the post abroad, and who returned crowned with laurels, the Hon. John K. Gowdy." (Applause.)

He paid a high tribute to President Roosevelt and to Governor Hanly, and briefly discussed the issues of the campaign, and concluded by saying:

"Fellow citizens, we are confronted with only two great issues, our industrial and social progress. Ponder well over these questions and take these questions into your own homes. For it is here that they must be wrought out, fought out, and worked out."

A committee, headed by Mayor Barrows, of Connersville, was here to escort the Vice President to that city. While he was delivering his brief speech, the special was transferred from the Big Four railroad to the C. H. & D. line, and was in readiness at the conclusion of the meeting here.

—Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Arnold have returned to Colorado Springs, Col. after a visit with relatives and friends here.

—Mr. and Mrs. Noah Tryon, of Orange township, have returned from an extended visit in Denver, Col. Mrs. Harvey Brown and daughter Marie, of Anderson township, accompanied them on the trip.

MURDERED MAN WAS A BROTHER OF BARTINES

George E. Bassore, the marshal of the town of Franklin, Ohio, who was shot and killed Tuesday morning by a negro, was a brother of Charles Bartine, the old circus man of Connersville. Bassore is Bartine's real name, but he changed it many years ago for the professional name of Bartine and he has gone by that name ever since.

MANY MERRY PRANKS PLANNED

By Young America, Who Will Storm Citadels of Peace
Loving Homes

Hallowe'en tonight. Have care, for coupled with the tail end of the rally, there will surely be "something doing." Extra police have been appointed, who will see that pranks and jokes are not carried too far.

But it is the occasion when spirits take the form of boys and girls and annoy the sleepy heads of the neighborhood with tick-tacks and other pookish noises and carry away the contents of cabbage and turnip patches. Gates, buggies, horses, harness and other personal property also disappear mysteriously and the broad grin on the face of the boy when the owners of the property thus spirited away, begins to swear, leads one to believe that he is a party to the devilment thus perpetrated, and his joy is completed when he beholds men lowering their buggies or gates from their house-tops.

This evening there will be the usual number of Hallowe'en parties, where all conventionalities will be laid aside. The old (that are not too old) will become young and all will enjoy the evening with the various amusements that human ingenuity can devise. There will doubtless be an unusually large crowd on the streets. Everybody will be on the move and the crowds will be noisy, but should be orderly.

Of late years there has been a tendency of reckless young people to take advantage of this occasion for the wanton destruction of property. However, this practice is already growing unpopular and the tendency is again to work up the innocent pranks that are laughable and at the same time not destructive.

OLD RUSHVILLE CARRIES THE DAY

W. R. C. Name it as Next Meeting Place and Local Woman is Elected President

The district convention of the W. R. C. was held in Columbus yesterday. The corps were inspected by Mrs. Eliza J. Crisler, of Greensburg, national patriotic instructor.

Mrs. Bell, wife of the State chaplain, the Rev. J. E. Bell, of Columbus, delivered the address of welcome, and Mrs. Kathryn Williams of Shelbyville, responded. A camp fire was held in the city hall and addresses were given by Mrs. Crisler, who spoke on "Teaching Patriotism in the Public Schools," and by the Rev. Mr. Bell, whose subject was "The Debt of Obligation Due the Loyal Women of Our Country." The convention will be held next year at Rushville. The officers elected were Mrs. Fannie Ridenbaugh, of Rushville, president; Mrs. Rhoda Hanna, of Connersville, vice president, and Mrs. Alice Van Pelt, of Shelbyville, treasurer.

—Miss Inez McManus has returned from a week's visit in Indianapolis.

—Percy Walker and Nine Amos attended a blooded hog sale in Lebanon yesterday.

GREAT FLOW OF ORATORY

Watson's Speech Was Probably the Best Ever Delivered in this City

Discussed the Great Issues of the Day in a Delightful,
Pleasing Manner

James E. Watson, Congressman from the Sixth district, "Whip" of the National House of Representatives, member of the Ways and Means committee, warm, personal friend of Speaker "Uncle Joe" Cannon, in close relation and having the confidence of the President of these United States, and last but not least our fellow townsman, spoke to an enthusiastic crowd that tested the capacity of the city opera house, last night.

Despite the strenuous exertions of the past few weeks, when he covered a distance of 15,000 miles on the "Cannon Special," Mr. Watson was in fine voice, and displayed little evidence of the strain of that whirlwind tour of the country. He was filled with his characteristic fire and eloquence and had his large audience with him, spell bound from the start. Col. E. H. Wolfe presided at the meeting and introduced Watson.

Mr. Watson arose amidst a round of cheering, and began his speech by saying that he did not wish to discuss personalities or petty issues, but wished to speak of the broader issues of principles and policies. He declared that Hearstism was a type of Socialism, that would array class against class. In noting the general prosperity of the country, he asked: "Did it just happen?" He said the Republican party stood for four things, and had settled four great questions, that made this the mightiest of nations, i. e.: The question of nationality, emancipation, sound money and a protective tariff. The slaves were freed in the South, he declared, and labor might be freed, and this was the first master stroke for the cause of the workingmen in this country, for labor in the Northland could never compete with the cheapest labor—the slave labor of the South.

Mr. Watson's speech was a masterful discussion of the tariff question, and he incidentally touched on nearly all the leading political questions of the day. But he said he wanted his neighbors to know where he stood on the tariff question and with the eloquence of a Demosthenes, he praised the present system and proved conclusively that together with one or two other Republican issues it was responsible for the present prosperous condition in this country, the fruits of a substantial Republican administration, a fitting contrast to the reign of a Democratic rule of soup houses and Coxey armies. He said: "You can't gather figs from a thistle bush, nor prosperity from Democratic administration."

"I am a standpatter," said Mrs. Watson, "if that means that I am against revising the tariff at the next session of Congress. But I am not hair brained enough to say that I am against the Dingley tariff rates for all time to come, for on that question I stand by the Indiana platform which says that the tariff is never to be revised only when it will do more good than harm. And I know that that platform is alright because I wrote it myself."

This last remark provoked laughter as did the scoring he gave Bryan which was as clever a "roasting" as ever given mortal man, and carrying with it nothing to offend the admirers of the "querulous."

"The country got along very well without Mr. Bryan when he was touring the globe," said Mr. Watson, "but the first thing that the eloquent manufacturer of pretty words and phrases did after he had come back from abroad, where he had salaamed to the Sultan of Siam, had ripped with Euripides and pawed around with all the aristocracy of the old world, was to begin again telling us what was the matter with us."

"Bryan says that Roosevelt has done fairly well, but has been handicapped by being a Republican, and also that in what he has done he has stolen Bryan's thunder. Did you ever hear of thunder tearing down a massive oak or shattering a great building? It is the lightning that does the work. Roosevelt is the lightning that has shivered the great trusts. He is the lightning that has struck down the railroads and has forced them to deal fairly and justly with all classes. But what is Bryan? Why Bryan is the big noise that always follows in the wake of lightning. He is the noisy thunder that is always heard but which accomplishes nothing.

In referring to his opponent he said he believed him to be a man that was O. K. in every respect, only he knew little about the great political questions, for he had no occasion to be conversant with them. Having been away from his own district during the present campaign, Watson had little time to hear or learn what his opponent for congress was preaching to the people, and his desire prompted him to have a stenographer at the Kuhn meeting here Saturday night, who wrote Dr. Kuhn's speech for Mr. Watson.

In referring to it, Watson said: "My friend came down here and began by telling you that under the present tariff conditions, we sell cheaper abroad than we do at home. But did he tell you how much we sold cheaper abroad—the per cent. of goods that this howl is being raised against, and did he tell you why we were doing it? No, he dare not for then the story would lose its force. Well, I will tell you. Just one-thirtieth of one per cent. of the articles we manufacture—just one-thirtieth of one per cent," he reiterated, "for ninety-seven per cent. of our manufactured articles are consumed at home, three per cent. sold abroad, and the majority, as you see, of those articles, bring the regular prices, and in most cases, higher prices. But still the Democrats are having a nightmare over it. And there are many reasons why some articles are sold cheaper abroad. In the first place, if raw material, on which there is a high tariff, is used in the manufacture of articles here, that tariff is remitted by Uncle Sam, if you want to ship the manufactured article out of the country, for then we can enter foreign markets and meet fair competition, at the same time give employment to American labor. This class of goods can be sold cheaper abroad. Then there is another reason. The goods are generally sold in large quantities and they get the cash in the foreign countries, while here, they are sold in smaller quantities and sold on long time. Then again there are some things that must be sold cheaper to compete, to get the trade; why all our merchants do this. Haven't you seen the great clearance sales, when storekeepers wish to convert their stock into money, even if it must be done on a discount?"

"Oh! he declared, 'we have investigated the whole thing, and we know about it.'"

He then gave as practical an illustration as ever made on any great question, being a true parallel condition, one we are all familiar with, and it certainly hit the bull's eye. He said: Now listen! Here is a similar condition. Suppose your good wife wants to go to Indianapolis shopping—but let me say here that this is wrong, for every woman, and every person for that matter, should buy their goods at home—but let us suppose that your wife wants to go to the city to shop (and you couldn't keep her at home if she wanted to go) and she, in company with a friend who lives in the city, goes out to buy, say, a cloak. Both purchase a cloak identically alike in every respect,

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

Owing to the fact that the Republican Rally and Hallowe'en come on the same night, doubtless some may think or take advantage of this to damage property. Anyone caught damaging property will be summarily punished. Extra police will be on duty, and all arrests will be attended to the following morning.

HARVEY M. COWING, paying $35 for same, and as they start to go out, the Rushville lady goes up to the cashier and says, "I live in Rushville, I want $1.20 refunded—my car fare to and from that city, and the cashier forthwith forks over the money, but the Indianapolis lady cannot get a penny rebate. That is selling cheaper abroad than at home, isn't it? And they do it to get foreign business, its an incentive for foreigners to come to the market they offer."

Watson declared that the Democratic party was the most skilled obstructionist party that God ever allowed to exist.

He spoke briefly of the work of the last Congress, a work, it must be said, he was responsible for in a large measure, as much as any other one man in Congress, for being a member of the Ways and Means committee, by far the most important one in both houses, and as "Whip" of the lower house, he deserves no end of credit for the service rendered his country in the passage of the railroad rate bill, the Elkins bill, the meat inspection bill, the pure food bill, the change in the interstate commerce law and many other important measures that were before the fifty-ninth congress.

He paid a high tribute to President Roosevelt, whom he declared was responsible for the greatest reform wave that ever swept over any country, and whose theory of government—the true Republican theory—was to preserve the good and kill off the evil—to regulate vast riches, fortunes and interests, not control. Not to cast a beautiful rose bush away on account of the prickly thorns, but to cut off the thorns, and not to burn the barn because it was infested with rats, but to rout the rats and save the barn for another harvest.

It is not a burst of "over enthusiasm" to say that Watson's speech last night, was from every standpoint the most logical, the most convincing and best delivered speech ever heard in this city. And it is little wonder that he is attracting attention all over the country, rising from obscurity in the past years to one of the foremost statesmen in the halls of Congress, and eulogized today by the Vice President of the United States who declared he was one of the greatest men in the country, who was listened to at Washington with wisdom and profit.

CORN CLUB WILL MEET NEXT SATURDAY

Young Men of This County Urged to be Present at the Meeting

A meeting of the Corn Club, an organization for the welfare of the young farmer boys of this county, will meet in the court house Saturday. John F. Haines, of Purdue University will talk to the boys on raising corn, and it will be well for every young man in the agriculture business in this county to hear Mr. Haines' address.

LADIES QUARTETTE TO BE HEARD HERE

Definite arrangements were made yesterday for the concert to be given in this city by the ladies quartette of the Indianapolis Conservatory of Music, of which Miss Ruth Tevis is a prominent member. One week from tonight, Nov. 7th, is the date set. The musical will be given at St. Paul's M. E. church, under the auspices of the church choir.

This quartette from the Conservatory is composed of the following young ladies: Miss Merle Sherborne, pianist and organist; Miss Nona Baker, contralto; Miss Mary Sims, violinist and reader, and Miss Ruth Tevis, soprano. Their program is said to be of a most entertaining sort.

"Let's have a safe and sane Hallowe'en tonight."

At Greensburg this morning, Vice President Fairbanks was taken to the public square in an automobile, and he spoke standing up in the machine.

GREAT SPEECH BY GRIFFITHS

Capt. John K. Gowdy Ignites a Governorship Boom For Griffiths

Hon. John L. Griffiths, Consul to Liverpool, spoke to a crowded house, one that was full to overflowing, at the city opera house this afternoon at one o'clock. The eloquence of Griffiths is known throughout this broad land, and his work on the stump in Indiana, in former years, proved most effective. He is in the class of "vote-getting" speakers.

He spoke on the great political issues that are being discussed by the American people today, and though separated from us by a great ocean, he is still close to us in our thoughts, and proved that he is thoroughly conversant with conditions in this country.

In his magnificent style he went into the tariff question, the trust question and the "Bryan" question, which he discussed in a comprehensive manner.

He spoke highly of the work done and being done by Governor Hanly, and said that if the people of this country were in sympathy with the moral administration of the State, then they should contribute their part by sending back to the general assembly, Hon. H. E. Guffin, a man that has been tried and proven, and a man ever ready to hold up the hands of the Governor.

Mr. Griffiths paid a high tribute to our congressman, James E. Watson and President Roosevelt. Very few men in State or National politics hold the place in the hearts of Rush county people that Hon. John L. Griffiths does.

After the meeting today, Capt. J. K. Gowdy, of this city, said: "If John L. Griffiths will make the race for Governor, I'll go along and champion him." And Rush county will send him a full delegation.

MACHINE POLITICS-- GASOLINE IS KING

Gasoline was King today. Five or six automobiles were in waiting at the Big Four depot when the "Fairbanks Special" steamed in, to take the party up town. Afterwards they were taken back to the special at the C. H. & D. station. All day the honk! honk! of daring chaffeurs(?) was heard as the gasoline buggies whizzed by on the down town streets, turning corners only because the telephone poles kept them from "cutting" them. Guess there will be a howl raised that this method of handling speakers is "machine politics."

BY THE WAYSIDE

When the Fairbanks train pulled into the Big Four station this morning, "Snitch" Bennett pushed forward through the crowd and extended his hand to the vice president, which was readily grasped, Mr. Fairbanks saying the usual, "Glad to meet you, sir!" "Snitch" looked at him for a second and in astonishment replied, "You are?"

SPECIAL TRAIN RUN FOR WATSON

Strenuous Itinerary For Next Few Days Will Keep Him
"Hop-Scotching"

That word, strenuous, brought into the limelight by President Roosevelt, never was more applicable than in the case of Congressman Watson, who has been called upon by the bureau of speakers to make a number of speeches during the remaining few days of the campaign, and nearly all the speeches will be made outside his own district.

Wednesday he is again going back into Speaker Cannon's district and will speak at Georgetown, Ill., on that day. An all-day rally will be in progress, and it will be one of the largest meetings of the campaign in that locality. From there Mr. Watson goes to Chicago, and will run out to Valparaiso to speak for one hour, and from there to Hammond where he will deliver the speech of the day at an afternoon meeting. After the Hammond meeting a special train will be provided for Watson, and it will be run into South Bend in time for the big meeting there that night, and they are heralding Congressman Watson as the best orator in the country. The meeting at South Bend will be one of the biggest political meetings held in this State, and the committee in charge, were jubilant when apprised that Watson would accept their invitation to deliver the principal address. South Bend is the home of many workmen, and Watson stands high with the laboring class in this country, for past records have proven him to be their friend. His stand on the tariff question and the fight he has made, and is always making against low tariff, is proof enough to convince many laboring men who study these great issues. The Labor World, a labor publication of Pittsburg, in the special election number of October 25th, pays a high tribute to Watson, and to what he has done for their interests in Congress.

It calls Watson the friend and champion of labor and further adds that he is one of the most popular Congressmen in the country with the labor unions.

Mr. Watson was the recipient of the congratulations of many friends today, for his speech last night.

WATSON PRAISED BY BEVERIDGE

Senior Senator Pays High Tribute to Watson and Urges
His Return to Congress

A dispatch to a metropolitan daily paper says: In his speech at Knightstown Senator Beveridge took occasion to pay a personal tribute to Representative James E. Watson and urge his return to Congress by an increased plurality. He said that as "Whip" of the House, Representative Watson had been of great service to the cause of the national administration, that he ranked among the leaders of the majority and that during the present campaign he had been an effective advocate of Republican principles in scores of congressional districts, sacrificing his own personal interests in order to do so. Senator Beveridge's eloquent reference to Mr. Watson was enthusiastically applauded by the large crowd that had gathered to hear the senior senator.

—Edwin Hewitt, of Des Moines, Iowa, will come this week for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Conner, of West Seventh street, and will accompany his wife, Mrs. Nellie Conner Hewitt, on her return home.

—J. Walter Wilson returned from Salem yesterday, where he has had charge of the evangelistic singing at a revival there. He will leave for Louisville, Ky., this week to conduct the singing at a big revival there.

THE man who can afford to buy only one Fall overcoat, does wisely if he makes that one garment a raincoat. Our Raincoats particularly, are built along the lines of the most stylish Fall overcoats. The fact that they throw off water like a duck's back, is really only an incident in their service. They may as properly be donned for street wear in sun-shiny weather, or over evening dress, or for any other service that you may exact of a stylishly-fashioned overcoat, as for rainy weather.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Trouble.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all the ills which are caused by weak or disordered kidneys.

Thomas Kennedy, of 246 Meridian street, Shelbyville, Ind., employed in the furniture factory, says: "Three or four years ago I began having rheumatic pains in my hips. It would wear off at times but any slight cold brought it on again. I commenced to have lameness in the small of my back, a bad feeling in the top of my head, and kidney secretions became unnatural and irregular. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at a drug store, and they banished the trouble. I have mentioned. I can confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from backache or other kidney complaint."

Fearful of Coming Trouble.

The wives of two musicians met on the street one day. One was the Ponca (Okla.) Courier. She was pushing a baby carriage containing three babies tripe. The other, just over her honeymoon, congratulated her upon such bliss. Upon which the proud mother attributed it to the fact that after returning from their honeymoon the band serenaded them, playing "Three Little Maids from School." The young bride held up her hands in holy horror and exclaimed: "My goodness! That same band serenaded us and played the sextet from 'Florio-bra'!"

Stand by Roosevelt.

Stand by prosperity.

Vote the Republican legislative ticket.

Get out and vote and then get out the vote.

Do not commit the crime of 1892 over again.

You know what happened as the result of the elections of 1890 and 1892. Don't let it happen again.

Stand by the honest and economical administration of public affairs, rather than the rule of the Taggart and Greene Smiths.

Let there be no stay-at-home Republicans on election day. Tuesday, November 6th, is the timely caution of the Bristol Banner. To make a certainty doubly sure, make extra effort to cast your ballot. Absent voters should make some sacrifices to get home to vote.

While in Indiana Mr. Bryan pushed in the government ownership ship. He made his audience understand that he meant government ownership only as an alternative. There wasn't anything about alternatives in the Madison Square Garden speech, but that was before Mr. Bryan heard from the South.

The gambling instinct seems to be inherent in most men. If they do not play cards they bet. If they do not bet they take chances in lotteries. If they abstain from lotteries they play stocks. If they are afraid of stocks they make business ventures that in the truest sense are a taking of chances. But there is one form of gambling that should be discouraged for the sake of public decency and that is betting on the election. It vulgarizes and demeans what should be a dignified act of the American people—to know that not merely gamblers and barroom loafers are putting up their money to back this or that candidate, as if he were a horse, but that men in the service of the State itself are openly staking sums on their favorite candidates and permitting the fact to be published in the press.

This is the last week of the campaign, and the election takes place next Tuesday. It has not been an arduous or exciting campaign, except for the big meeting this week. Opportunity has been offered every voter to make an intelligent choice, and it may be asserted without any bias of partisanship that a comparison of the tickets in the field—whether State, district or county—has been wholly favorable to the Republican candidates. The Republican party is a staple and substantial organization. Its responsibility is unquestioned. It can always be found.

As for the Democratic party, it is, if not dead, admittedly moribund. It has fallen into the hands of quacks and adventurers. The respectable minority of real Democrats no longer exercises any influence upon its policies or its candidates. These latter are little better than the figureheads erected by corruptionists or visionaries. There is no reason why any intelligent man should vote for them.

There is thus every reason why patriotic citizens should support the Republican candidates. They are excellent men, qualified for the offices to which they aspire. They are vouched for by the Republican party of the county, State and nation and there is no political voucher more sound or substantial than that.

TO AROUSE THE VOTERS

The Vice President Making Personal Tour of Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., October 31.—Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks today began a four days' tour of Indiana under the direction of the Republican state committee. His special train left here at 8 a. m. over the Big Four for Shelbyville, where the first stop was made. He will speak at Shelbyville, Greensburg, Rushville, Connersville, Newcastle, Parker City, Winchester and Richmond in the order named. Parker City and Winchester were the only stops scheduled outside the Sixth district. The vice president is accompanied by John L. Griffiths, consul general to Liverpool; Congressman James E. Watson, "whip of the house," and a score of party leaders. The train is under the management of Will Hayes, chairman of the Republican speakers' bureau. The vice president's itinerary will take him into a majority of the counties and all but two congressional districts. Chairman Goodrich and his lieutenants are counting on his being able to arouse the voters so they will go to the polls next Tuesday.

The reason for the cancellation of Congressman John Sharp Williams's engagement to speak at New Albany Monday night has been made public. It was learned that Chairman Taggart wired him not to come. Taggart wired him at the request of Captain Thomas Hanlon, one of the Third district leaders, who was afraid that Williams's coming might widen the breach between the Cox and Zenor factions, as Zenor's followers were incensed last week because the congressional committee sent Captain Richmond P. Hobson to New Albany at the suggestion of Cox's lieutenants. Captain Hanlon and others have asked Chairman O'Brien of the state committee to send as many speakers as possible to the Third to "whop things up" until election day. The speakers' bureau here is making as many assignments as possible for the Third.

The first bet of the campaign on the result in this state was posted here today. It was a small one—$25 to $20 that Fred A. Sims, Republican candidate for secretary of state, will be elected by a plurality of 30,000. There has been no betting on the general result, and probably will not be much, owing to the uncertainty as to the size of the Republican plurality. There are a few bets now and then on the local candidates, but the indications are that as much, or more, money will change hands here on the New York election as on the contest in Indiana.

The Democrats will have meetings in practically every county in the state between now and Monday. Chairman Hendon has requests for more speakers than he can supply. John W. Kern will speak at Corydon Wednesday; Princeton, Thursday; Newburg, Friday. S. M. Ralston will speak tomorrow at Auburn; Thursday at Franklin; Friday at Vevay and Patriot; Saturday at Nashville. All of the candidates on the state ticket are either making speeches or looking after the organization.

Reports received at the Democratic headquarters from the Third district are to the effect that the Democrats have not been split by the Cox-Zenor fight as the Republicans fondly hoped, and that they are getting together in great shape and will give William E. Cox a very large majority. It is even predicted now that he will win by a larger majority than Zenor received two years ago, when he was the only Democratic candidate on the ticket.

J. F. Cox, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, who called at the committee rooms today, expressed the conviction that the Democrats are going to carry the state. He said they are having better meetings than the Republicans everywhere and are not compelled to use brass band methods to get out the crowds as the Republicans do.

Joseph T. Fanning, Seventh district chairman, has returned from New York to remain until after the election. He is doing all he can to bring about the election of Frank Gavin, Democrat, to congress from this district.

Californians Preparing Their Side of the Oriental Question.

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—President Altman and his fellow-members of the board of education are now busily engaged in preparing data to be presented to Secretary Metcalf of the department of commerce and labor relative to the separation of white and Japanese children in the public schools. Secretary Metcalf is coming as the personal representative of President Roosevelt, who has been appealed to by the Japanese government, and while the local board is prepared to extend every courtesy to the distinguished visitor, not one member of the local educational body feels willing to admit that a wrong has been done the Japanese.

President Altman stated that representatives of the Japanese and Korean League of this city would meet Secretary Metcalf upon his arrival and would be prepared to point out to him just why the board of education could not legally permit the Japanese to attend school with the white children of this state and therein the action of the board was in strict compliance with the state law.

Interesting Question Raised.

London, Oct. 31.—Replying to a question in the house of commons by C. W. Bellairs, Liberal, as to whether there was any provision in the Anglo-Japanese treaty safeguarding his majesty's dominions from becoming involved in a war with America on behalf of Japan, Earl Grey, the foreign secretary, wrote a reply in which he referred the question to the text of the agreement. The foreign secretary added: "This agreement is of a general character and there is no indication that it is likely to lead to war with any power."

The Coes Defy the Law.

Cloyds Landing, Ky., Oct. 31.—Jesse Coe, a negro, who recently killed a policeman in Indianapolis, is in the southern part of this county, where he formerly lived. It is said that he and others of the Coe negroes are armed with Winchester and declare that they will die before Jesse shall be arrested. The Coe negroes are a desperate gang, and for years were engaged in a feud with the Taylors, during which more than a score of men were killed.

Victims Number Sixteen.

Kansas City, Kan., Oct. 31.—The search for the bodies of those who lost their lives in the fire that destroyed the Chamber of Commerce building here last Thursday has ended, and it is known that the victims number sixteen.

FIXING TO FIGHT

CHIEF KANNAPA TALKS

Leader of Disaffected Tribesmen Says
His People Will Not Go Back to Utah to Starve.

Troops Closing In on the Indians'
Stronghold and Pitched Battle
Is Expected.

Billings, Mont., Oct. 31.—A telephone message from Arvada, Wyo., states that the renegade Ute Indians are entrenched in a strong position in the hills and that the Tenth and Sixth cavalry corps are reconnoitering the country preparatory to closing in on them. Apparently the object of the troops is to awe the Indians with a display of superior force and thus secure their surrender without bloodshed.

The Utes are determined not to give in until compelled, believing surrender will mean their return to Utah, where they say they cannot secure enough to eat. The Utes have been active in laying in a large supply of ammunition at Cheyenne and Gillette, and if the temper of the leading tribesmen can be taken as an indication, they propose to fight or at least make a show of resistance and secure concessions from the soldiers pending an appeal to Washington.

Last night the campfires of the Indians blazed brightly. The Utes are not painted, nor are they dancing. Moorehead advises state that a panic is on there and the women and children are being removed from the scene. It is feared that in the event of clash between the soldiers and Indians, the Indians will scatter and work their vengeance upon the settlers. The ranches are being converted into fortresses.

Prepared to Fight.

Sheridan, Wyo., Oct. 31.—Luther Dunning has just arrived from the Indian camp, where he talked with Chief Kannapa, who says his people are prepared to fight before they will be taken back to Utah to starve.

MORE BODIES FOUND

"Thoroughfare" Death List Has Now
Grown to Fifty-Eight.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 31.—The contention of Coroner Gaskill that a number of persons who lost their lives in the electric train wreck on the "Thoroughfare" bridge Sunday may be buried in the mud where the cars plunged, was borne out last evening when the bodies of three women were recovered from under the third car. This car hung from the abutment in the center of the bridge with its nose in the mud, and when the workmen were trying to lift it from the water the bodies worked loose. All were cut and battered.

The finding of these bodies increases the official identified dead to fifty-one and the total number of bodies recovered to fifty-four. There are still known to be among the dead the bodies of four other victims, which makes the certain number of dead in the wreck total fifty-eight. There still remains at various mortuaries three unclaimed bodies.

An Interesting Discovery.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 31.—Walter E. Koch, a fellow of the Geological Society of London, and G. B. Richardson of the United States geological survey, in their excavation here have unearthed the jaw bones of two tapirs, supposed to have existed here 25,000 years ago, and an elephant's tooth, from an animal which probably lived 12,000 years ago. The discovery of the bones proves, the geologists say, that this great desert region was once a jungle. Tapirs live on roots along river banks, and elephants would not have been here unless it had been marshy.

To Preserve Church Property.

Paris, Oct. 31.—As a result of intimations coming from very high clerical quarters that Catholics purpose to carry off religious objects from the churches before the application of the separation law, the government has sent a circular to all the prefects of police in France pointing out that they will be held personally responsible in the event of the disappearance of such objects, and that their private property may be distrained for the value thereof.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The soldier Vlasov and eight of his associates in the plot to blow up the building where the court martial trying the Cronstadt mutineers was sitting, have been executed.

Spanish Premier Dying.

Madrid, Oct. 31.—Premier Lopez Dominguez is extremely ill and his condition is causing anxiety to his friends.

BLOODSHED AVERTED

Russian Workmen Abide by Conservative Order Their Leaders.

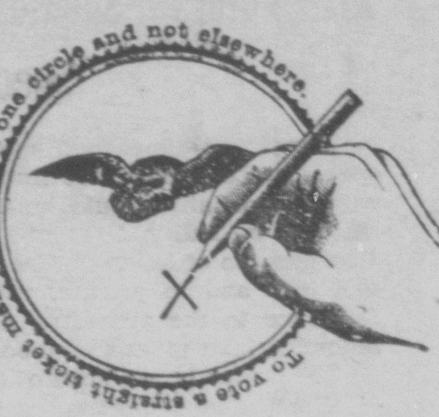

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The first anniversary of the proclamation of the manifesto giving a constitution to Russia passed in undisturbed quiet. Disorder and bloodshed were averted. The workmen of St. Petersburg, always the most numerous element in any disturbance, complied absolutely with the orders of the labor organizations and abstained from any celebration or demonstration. The Putiloff iron works employees worked as usual in obedience to the orders from labor headquarters. These works are the heart of the labor movement. Disquieting signs were observed near the works, and an adequate force of men was stationed in the neighborhood to cope with any emergency. The men of a score of smaller factories had the day off, but work was performed in a majority of the shops. Several bands of Black Hundreds, armed with staves, paraded in a remote street, but there were no collisions with them, nor have there been any conflicts between the workmen and the police.

RAN BLAZING IN STREETS

Young Man at Pittsburg Enveloped in Flaming Gasoline.

Pittsburg, Oct. 31.—Elmer Hackett, twenty-four years old, is in a hospital seriously burned as the result of a peculiar accident last night. A large can of gasoline ignited in an automobile garage and an employee threw it into the street, striking Hackett, who was passing at the time. The blazing fluid covered him and, screaming for help, Hackett ran down the street. An automobile was standing near by, and, putting a robe about Hackett to extinguish the flames, the chauffeur speeded the machine to the hospital. Policemen chased the chauffeur and arrested him in front of the hospital for exceeding the speed limit. Later he was released.

PANIC AND PROSPERITY—RAILROAD DIVIDENDS.

When the tariff revision period of 1893-97 began, railroad dividends in the United States were averaging 1.93 per cent, or $1.93 for each $100 worth of stock. In 1893 there was a drop to 1.88, in 1894 a further drop to 1.60, and the drop kept on dropping until 1897, after four years of tariff revision, the average dividend had fallen to 1.51. In 1898 the dividend rate showed the effects of restored protection. It had risen to 1.71. In 1899 it had gone up to 1.92, and it kept on going up until 1904, the last year for which complete data are at hand, it had reached 3.03, or more than double the average dividend rate of 1897. The accompanying chart, compiled from Poor's Manual for 1905, gives some interesting details of the decline of railroad stock dividends in the tariff revision years of 1893-97 and their recovery and advance to high water figures in seven years of uninterrupted protection.

DO YOU RAISE CORN?

If you do, raise lots of it at a reduced expense of 40 to 50 per cent.

The $30,000,000 Corn Book

Will tell you How To Do It. It is the most valuable and absolutely indispensable work ever written on any single branch of Agriculture, by Professor P. G. Holden, the world's greatest authority on Corn.

ABSOLUTELY FREE OF COST TO THE READERS OF THE DAILY REPUBLICAN.

Worth $30,000,000.

Mr. Horace Markley, in Smith's Magazine for June, 1906, says:

"It is claimed for Professor Holden that he increased the earning capacity of the farmers of the State of Iowa to the extent of Thirty Million Dollars in one year by traveling up and down the State lecturing, demonstrating and exhorting the farmers to greater earnestness in their work, to better systems, to newer methods and ideas, and to profit by what had been demonstrated by himself to be a thoroughly practical procedure for increasing the corn crop."

ONLY CORN BOOK BY PROF. HOLDEN.

Prof. Holden has delivered hundreds of lectures, and written hundreds of articles on corn growing, but never before has he put the whole matter in a systematic, condensed, easily practical book form.

This book contains the cream of Professor Holden's lectures on corn. It puts into permanent form for farmers everywhere the points which have proven so profitable in Iowa.

PRACTICAL FARMER'S HANDBOOK

It is a practical farmer's handbook. Not technical, just plain, straightforward how to grow corn. It is so simple a child can understand it. In fact, thousands of farm boys are enthusiastically engaged in corn contests, corn clubs, etc., putting into practice just what is in the book. Just direct, plain, practical talks such as Professor Holden gives on the corn trains, at meetings and at Chautauques.

NOT THEORY BUT PRACTICE

It is not theory but practice, just as it has been worked out on this farm. The practical experiments which have produced this book have cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. Here are condensed the results of money spent in experiments by Michigan, Iowa, Iowa and other states. This book is the result of years of work, patient investigation, travel, thinking and the expenditure of much money. Herein it is the only and original book by Professor Holden.

A BEAUTIFUL BOOK

The book is 5 1/2 inches wide by 8 inches high, and contains 128 pages. It is bound down, hit the nail on the head direct to the point. There is no waste in this book. It has a "good stand." Every page in it is something. It is printed on fine enameled paper from nice large type, made especially for the book. It is bound in a heavy paper binding, beautifully decorated. It is a neat book as well as a beautiful one. The contents are worthy of the best possible showing, and we have made just as good a book as we can possibly make and keep the cost so low that every one may have a copy.

PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED

Every step is made plain by a series of illustrations, so you can see just what to do the same as is shown on the corn trains. The clear half-tone pictures are made from actual photographs of practical experiments right from the field.

HOW TO GET IT FREE

Our prime object in going to all the expense and trouble of securing this book is to help Daily Republican subscribers and to introduce the Daily Republican into every home in Rush County. To do this we are going to GIVE THE BOOK AWAY with a year's subscription to the Daily Republican and give you three years' subscription to FARM NEWS (for a year) for ONLY TWENTY-FIVE CENTS ADDITIONAL.

DO NOT DISFRANCHISE YOURSELF

All Voters Should Read Carefully the Following Specific Instructions.

Every year thousands upon thousands of persons have their first experience in voting under the Australian ballot system. It is important that first voters especially should be carefully instructed, to the end that their votes may not be nullified through imperfections. Older voters also need instruction because of changes that have been made in the election laws. At public meetings and in private, voters should be given specific information with reference to the procedure necessary in casting a ballot. To this end the following instructions may be found of value:

The device at the head of the Democratic ticket is a rooster.
The device at the head of the Republican ticket is an eagle.
The Democratic ticket is in the first column, the Republican ticket is in the second column, and so on.

Below is a sample of the heading of the Democratic and Republican tickets, with the respective party devices, in the order in which they will appear on the ballot:

When you go to your voting place you will be handed three ballots: The State ballot—On red paper, containing the candidates to be voted on for State offices, except for Senator and Representative. The county ballot—Printed on white paper. The township ballot—Printed on yellow paper, containing the township candidates.

If you want to vote a straight Republican ticket, make a cross within the circle containing the eagle at the head of the first column of the ballot.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS:

First. You must get your ballot and the blue pencil from the Polling Clerks in the election room.

Second. If you desire to vote a straight Republican ticket, then make a cross, thus, X, within the large circle containing the eagle. If you do not desire to vote a straight ticket, you must not make a cross in the large circle containing the eagle, but must make a cross, thus, X, on the small square to the left of the name of each candidate for whom you desire to vote, on whatever list of candidates it may be. If the large circle at the head of the ticket is marked with a cross or otherwise and the ballot is marked with a cross or otherwise at any other place, it will be void and cannot be counted, unless there be no candidate for some office in the list printed under such marked device, in which case you may indicate your choice for such office by making a cross, thus, X, on the square to the left of the name of any candidate for such office on any other list. The cross must be placed within or on the circle or square, or the ballot will be void and can not be counted.

Third. Do not mutilate your ballots, nor mark them, either by scratching off a name or writing one upon them, nor in any other way put a mark upon them, except by placing one in the circle or on the squares, as above described. Otherwise the ballot will not be counted. You must not put any mark of any kind upon your ballot except in the manner above described.

Fourth. After you have marked your ballots, and before you leave the election booth, fold them up separately so that the face of each one can not be seen, and so the initial letters of the names of the Polling Clerks on the back thereof can be seen. Then hand your ballots to the Inspector, the pencil to the Polling Clerks, and immediately leave the election room.

Fifth. If you are physically unable to mark your ballots, or can not read English, so inform the Polling Clerks, and make an affidavit to that effect. They will then go with you into the election booth, and you can then tell them how you desire to vote, and they will mark your ballot for you. Neither you nor the Polling Clerks must permit any other person to hear or see how your ballot is marked. It is a penal offense to declare you can not read English or can not mark your ballot, if, in fact, you can.

[In no case can the ballots be marked by the Polling Clerks if the voter can read the English language and is physically able to mark his ballot. Nor can they mark it until the voter has made the proper affidavit.]

Sixth. If you should accidentally, or by mistake, deface, mutilate or spoil one of our ballots, return it to the Poll Clerks and get another one of the same kind.

Seventh. You must not accept a ballot from any person outside of the election room. Any ballot outside is fraudulent; and it is a penitentiary offense to have it in your possession, whether you attempt to vote it or not.

Eighth. You must not attempt to hold any conversation in the election room except with members of the Election Board and the Polling Clerks.

Ninth. Use only the blue pencil handed you by the Polling Clerks in marking your ballots. If you mark with any other pencil, your ballot so marked will be void, and will not be counted.

Tenth. You must not put any mark of any kind on your ballot, except as above described.

THE NEW LAW AS TO BUYING AND SELLING VOTES.

(Approved March 6, 1905. Acts 1905, p. 481.)

Penalty for Buying Votes.

1. That whoever, directly or indirectly, hires, buys or offers to hire or buy, or furnish any money or other means to be used, or directs or permits his money or other means to be used, or handles any money or other means, knowing the same to be used to induce, hire or buy any person to vote or refrain from voting any ticket or for any candidate for any office, to be voted for at any election held in this State; or whoever attempts to induce any person to vote or to refrain from voting for any candidate for any office to be voted for at any election held pursuant to law or at any primary held in this State, by offering such person any reward or favor, shall be fined in any sum not more than fifty dollars and disfranchised and rendered incapable of holding any office of trust or profit for a period of ten years from the date of such conviction.

Penalty for Selling or Offering to Sell Votes.

2. Whoever sells, barter, or offers to sell or barter his vote or offers to refrain from voting for any candidate for any office to be voted for at any election held in this State, either for any money or property or thing of value or for any promise or favor or hope of reward, given or offered by any candidate to be voted for at any election held in this State or by any other person or persons, shall be fined in any sum not more than fifty dollars and disfranchised and rendered incapable of holding any office of trust or profit for a period of ten years from the date of such conviction.

Witnesses.

3. Any person called as a witness to testify against another for the violation of any of the provisions of sections one or two of this act, is a competent witness to prove the offense, although he may have been concerned as a party, and he shall be compelled to testify as other witnesses, but such evidence shall not be used against him in any prosecution for such or any other offense growing out of matters about which he testifies, and he shall not be liable to trial by indictment or information or punished for such offense.

A thing worth fighting to get is a thing worth fighting to keep. The present prosperity of the American people is worth as much to them as an accomplished fact, as was the unrealized hope which led to the great Republican pluralities of the past six Indiana campaigns.

If it was worth while to go to the polls in 1894 and 1896 that prosperity might be attained, doubly worth while is it to go to the polls on November 6, 1906, that prosperity attained may be preserved.

SOME CAMPAIGN-END POINTERS.

Do you believe that the railroad rate law was just and ought to have passed? Do you believe that the corporations of the country ought to be equal, no more than equal, no less than equal, before the law, with the individual citizen? Do you believe that the pure food law ought to have been passed? Do you believe that the meat inspection bill ought to have been passed? Do you believe that the corporations engaged in breaking the law of the land to the detriment of the people ought to have been prosecuted as they have been by the present state administration? Do you believe that the present prosperity of the country is worth maintaining? Do you believe in first having prosperity to distribute and then seeing to it that it is distributed with some regard for the general welfare of all the people? If so, go to the polls on November 6th and cast your ballot for that congressional candidate for whom Theodore Roosevelt would vote if he were an elector in your precinct. If you want to substitute for the present condition of affairs what the president calls "purposeless confusion;" if you want to tie the hands of the administration, and put it at marking time—marching without progress—for another two years, cast half a vote against Roosevelt by staying at home, or a whole vote by going to the polls and voting for the congressional nominee who will be governed by a caucus opposed to the administration.

If you are a farmer, are you dissatisfied with the present price of farm lands, the present price of corn, of oats, of hay, or potatoes, of fruit, of poultry, of hogs, of cattle, of sheep, of horses, of all that your acres produced? Or would you like to get back on the 1894 basis? Would you like to get the things you have to buy by buying of the poorly paid wage-earner abroad who consumes the foodstuffs produced on foreign farms, or would you prefer to maintain at the present high level the greatest home market in all the world? Do you imagine that you can sell at top notch prices, Mr. Farmer, and buy at the foreign standard? In short, do you want to set yourself back a dozen years, and feed on the husks of another tariff reform period like that which followed when Mr. Cleveland got to work at the White House and Mr. Bryan in congress? What happened under the tariff laws of a generation ago is a subject of the statisticians. What happened a dozen years ago can be settled by your own memory. The assistance of a text-book, the assistance of a newspaper, the assistance of a campaign speaker is not necessary to furnish a concrete piece of experience that is worth all the metaphors, all the similes, all the perorations that were ever ripped off by Mr. Bryan or any other public speaker. Consult your own judgment. Consult your own memory. Look about you—then look back. Then cast a ballot based upon what your eyes see, your memory recalls and your judgment dictates.

Do not cast half a vote against Theodore Roosevelt. If you do not approve of the course of the administration, go to the polls and cast a ballot for its repudiation by voting the Democratic congressional ticket. If you want a change from present conditions, if you believe that a restoration of the country to the 1894 basis is desirable, go boldly to the polls and say so. If you approve of the course of the administration, do not be a stay-at-home. The man who does not think that his suffrage is worthy the fifty cents worth of time it would take to exercise it ought to be back in the dark ages, when the business of government was looked after for him by others who managed to get paid for their services in this direction out of his toil, out of his liberties, out of his comfort. It ought to be considered contemptible for any free-born American citizen, without conscientious scruples against voting, to fail to go to the polls. The voluntary failure to vote is only a step worse than the sale of a vote, because in truth the man who fails to cast his ballot sells out the chance for the price of the time and effort it would take to go to the polls.

Get out and vote. Get out the vote. These should be the slogans of Indiana Republicanism from now until the end of November 6th. This is no time for apathy or indifference. The loss of the congressional elections in 1890 foreshadowed the loss of the country to Republicanism in 1892, and the era of calamity which followed the tariff bungling of Mr. Cleveland, Mr. Bryan and their associates in authority at Washington during the sittings of the succeeding congress.

The duty of every citizen on every election day extends beyond voting. At every congressional election the future of the country is necessarily involved. That future should be the chief concern of every man enjoying the blessings and privileges of free government. Election day should be given over to the work of seeing that there is the fullest and freest expression of public opinion at the polls. Every man who realizes the importance of the duty involved in voting should do at least a little missionary work for the cause he believes to be that of his country. Election day is Tuesday, November 6th. Get out and vote. Get out the vote.

A FOUR DAY TRIP

Vice President Fairbanks on An Indiana "Swing Around the Circle."

BUSY DAYS AHEAD

During the Trip Which Began This Morning Mr. Fairbanks Will Visit Forty-Five Cities.

Fresh From Successful Western Tour He Addressed Great Crowd at Indianapolis Last Night.

Indianapolis, Oct. 31.—Vice-President Fairbanks' tour of the state on a special train began this morning and will last four days. The tour will be made according to the schedule published several days ago. The following places will be visited:

Wednesday—Shelbyville, Greensburg, Rushville, Connersville, Newcasttle, Parker City, Winchester and Richmond.

Thursday—Ridgeville, Hartford City, Marion, Wabash, Huntington, Rochester, Argos, Knox, Valparaiso, Hammond, Michigan City, Laporte and South Bend.

Friday—Elkhart, Goshen, Warsaw, Peru, Logansport, Kokomo, Frankfort, Delphi, Lafayette, Crawfordsville, Rockville and Terre Haute.

Saturday—Jasonville, Linton, Odon, Bedford, Mitchell, Shoals, Washington, Vincennes, Princeton, Oakland City, Elberfeld and Evansville.

Vice-President Fairbanks arrived home yesterday from his extended speaking tour of the West and the Southwest. He was gone about two weeks, and made speeches in Arkansas, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Kansas and Kentucky, closing Monday night at Bowling Green. Despite this strenuous trip, on some days of which he made fifteen speeches, he was in good voice and last night addressed an audience which tested the capacity of Tomlinson hall.

GEORGE A. KNIGHT IMPROVED

Chances for Recovery of Attorney Hurt in Fight Are More Favorable.

Brazil, Ind., Oct. 31.—George A. Knight, sixty-eight years old, who was seriously hurt Monday afternoon in the circuit court room in a fight with ex-Judge Sam McGregor, is somewhat improved today, and the chances for his recovery are more favorable. One of the attending physicians reports, however, that there are strong indications of pleuro-pneumonia, and that his heart action is bad. There also seems to be a partial paralysis of the lower extremities.

The blow from Judge McGregor's fist felled him to the floor, his back striking on a heavy iron cuspidor. It was thought at first he had suffered a fracture of the vertebrae. Mr. Knight remained unconscious for ten hours.

The only remark uttered by Judge McGregor after the affair, was: "Knight exasperated me so I could not help but strike him." Immediately after the incident Judge Culver, who was on the bench, adjourned court, remarking, "This is awful."

Rival's Murderous Assault.

Columbia City, Ind., Oct. 31.—Chas. Brown attacked Edward Kerns while Kerns was working in a cornfield on the Byall farm, and beat him till he was unconscious, after which he mounted a bicycle and rode away in a laughing humor. Brown and Kerns had been paying attentions to the same young woman, and Kerns was assisting her family in corn husking when Brown, who chanced to be riding by, saw Kerns at work and jumped over the fence and attacked him. Kerns is in a serious condition, while Brown is a fugitive.

Cracksmen Driven Away.

Brownsville, Ind., Oct. 31.—The post-office in this place was entered during the night by burglars, making the fourth time that an attempt had been made to rob the office. John Heim, immediately opposite, discovered the robbers at work, and he notified night operator Ritter, of the C. H. & D. railway, and after an exchange of shots the burglars were forced to flight, leaving their tools behind. No person was injured. An attempt is being made to trail the burglars with bloodhounds.

Mayor's Home Stoned.

Mishawaka, Ind., Oct. 31.—Unknown persons wrecked a four-foot plate-glass window-pane in the handsome home of Charles Frank, mayor of the city, while the interior of the room was damaged by stones thrown by the vandals. It is believed the attack is due to the fact that Mayor Frank has ordered the enforcement of the liquor laws in this city.

Fatal Hunting Accident.

Petersburg, Ind., Oct. 31.—Louis Robling, sixteen years old, while hunting fell off a fence, discharging the gun which he was carrying. The discharge tore away the left arm and buried itself in neck and face, putting out the right eye and injuring the brain. The wound is fatal.

MODERN SLAVERY

Young White Women Sold on the Block In Christian America.

THIS AWFUL TRAFFIC

Is Arraigned In Tones That Must Arouse Attention by the National W. C. T. U.

Instances of Young Women Held In Captivity and Sold at Auction.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 31.—"There are 10,000 young women in Chicago who are obliged to work at $5 a week and there are 5,000 saloons there, too," said Mrs. Lurinda B. Smith of Kansas, at the afternoon session of the national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, in presenting to the convention the difficulties with which the refuge work of the organization has to contend. Mrs. Smith made a spirited appeal for the efforts of all the delegates from all parts of the country to put a stop to white slave trade. The speaker cited instances of young women held in captivity and sold at auction in New York, and asked why it was that forty years after the civil war had been fought for the liberation of the black slaves, that slavery of young women should be tolerated in this country. She said that one of the most hopeful signs of the times was when the seventeen nations recently banded together for the suppression of this awful vice.

Many farmers remained in this city for the torch light procession tonight.

The W. R. C. Penny Social will meet at the home of Mrs. Lizzie English's on West Second street, Thursday evening.

The condition of Mrs. William Adams, who is ill at the Stearns' sanitarium in Indianapolis, remains about the same, with little evidence of improvement.

Mrs. Henry Kramer, of Indianapolis, is suffering with pneumonia, and her son, Harry, of this city, was called to her bedside yesterday. His wife accompanied him.

The I. & C. car leaving Connersville at 12 o'clock yesterday morning, left the track, west of Connersville and was delayed for some time.

What's the use to worry? The fellows who gather statistics say there are 30,000,000 turkeys being fattened for Thanksgiving. Pretty nearly half a turkey for each of us.

The Band of Workers of the Presbyterian church will hold a rummage sale in the sample room of the Windsor hotel, West First street, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The foot ball team practices every afternoon. Well, it "won't do 'em hurt," as they have lost all the games played this season—two games. But the team has not got to working good as yet.

There is a freak pigeon mounted by Prof. Headlee, in Hargrove & Mullin's window. It has feathers all over its legs and even has great long feathers growing on its toes. It was killed near this city.

Harry Boyd, the clever and ingenious window trimmer and clerk in Ashworth's drug store, has as attractive a window, in the way of a witch's dream, as has been seen in this city for some time.

Michael Coyne, a cigar maker employed in Wingerter's factory, has sold his property on East Eighth street, and will remove to the northern part of the State, to engage in the cigar manufacturing business.

—Mrs. E. J. Walsh, of Indianapolis, will be the guest of Mrs. John Kiplinger, North Morgan street, the latter part of the week. Mrs. Walsh is a talented singer, having a wonderful contralto voice, and sings in concerts all over the country.

Robbers made a bold but unsuccessful attempt to loot the Brownsville postoffice Monday night, but they were discovered before their operation had proceeded very far. They are working all around this city, making a successful haul at Greensburg a few days ago.

The accident, which resulted in the death of the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aylea, near Fountaintown, Monday, calls to mind another tragedy which occurred at the same place about eight years ago, when a brother of Mr. Aylea, who accidentally shot his little daughter, took his own life by shooting himself with a revolver in the barn.

Quite a number of people from this city attended the Scoville meeting in Indianapolis last night. A special train was run from Connersville, carrying over 250 passengers. Rev. Scoville conducted a wonderful revival in Connersville recently, securing over 700 converts. He is one of the leading evangelists of the Christian church, and one of the most successful evangelists of any creed in this country.

Greensburg has a street fair this week.

One of the company's officials of the I. & C. says that they would reduce the running time between Connersville to Indianapolis from time to time until by the Fourth of next July they expect to have cars running in one and a half hours.

Shelbyville Republican: The traction line has a force of men at work night and day on the line running through this city. They are placing the trolley wires in position and are hurrying as rapidly as possible that the city of Greensburg may soon have the "juice" running therein from this city via Rushville.

John Tittsworth writes from Wayside, Miss., that he is having the time of his life, and now knows all about colonial mansions, raising of cotton, and has a solution for the settlement of the so-called race problem. He is in the same neck of the woods where President Roosevelt hunted bears. John says he sits around on the great wide southern verandas, and has not got any ambition to go out hunting bears—as he never lost any.

SOCIETY NEWS

At the card party in the Knights of Columbus club rooms last night, Pete Demmer and Miss Jennie Madden captured the prizes in progressive euchre, and Nathan Horr and daughter, Miss Susie Horr, drew the consolation offerings. About forty couples were in attendance. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Hood delightfully entertained forty invited guests at a five-course turkey dinner last Sunday in honor of the former's 34th birthday anniversary, his wife having planned a surprise which was successfully carried out. Some very fine selections of music were rendered by Mr. Hood and Mrs. Walter Peters. Every one departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Hood many more such happy occasions.

CHURCH NEWS

A testimonial meeting of Christian Scientists will be held this evening at 7:45 in the court house assembly room. The public is cordially welcome.

The meeting of the Presbyterian Brotherhood will be held at 7 o'clock, Friday, instead of 7:30 o'clock, the usual hour, on account of the musical number of the lecture course.

Rev. W. P. McGarey will preach on "Lest we Forget" at the United Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. Appropriate services will be held in the evening in observance of Young Men's Day.

Young Men's Day will be observed at the Main Street Christian church next Sunday. The Young Men's Christian Association the world over has for many years been holding a week of prayer for young men beginning the second Sunday in November. They request pastors of churches to preach on the second Sunday in the month a sermon of special interest to young men. Mr. Sniff cannot hold this observance Nov. 11th, and has it instead on next Sunday. Special invitation will be extended for the pastor's Bible class in the Sunday school at 9:15, and an address will be delivered in the evening on "The Young Man and his Investment of Manhood." Excellent music will be rendered and all are invited.

—Mrs. Henry Butler, of Manila, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Mauer, on East Ninth street.

—Mrs. Frank Whittinger, of Orange township, has returned from a visit with relatives in Logansport.
